HISTORY OF INVESTIGATION:

In summary, R/Os were on routine patrol and observed a vehicle blocking the alley at approximately [REDACTED]. The vehicle pulled out of the alley and R/Os curbed same at [REDACTED]. R/Os approached and observed offender [REDACTED] driving and his girlfriend [REDACTED] in the passenger seat. R/Os smelled an odor of alcohol and observed an open bottle of Miller Genuine Draft beer in the cup holder. R/Os asked [REDACTED] about the beer and he stated "That's all I got." R/Os asked [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to exit the vehicle at which time [REDACTED] was advised of his Miranda Rights. R/Os asked offender [REDACTED] if he resided in the area and he stated "Yes I live at li [REDACTED]". R/Os asked offender [REDACTED] for his driver's license and he complied. R/Os observed that [REDACTED] driver's license was registered to [REDACTED]. R/Os asked [REDACTED] if he had anything else illegal on his person or in his vehicle and he related that he did not and that he only had a couple hundred dollars in his pocket. R/Os looked inside [REDACTED] vehicle and observed a large bundle of U.S.C. in the overhead driver's visor. R/Os asked [REDACTED] about the money and he became nervous in that his body began trembling and stated "Man I hustle a little bit", R/Os know this as street terminology to mean that [REDACTED] sells drugs. At this time R/Os placed handcuffs on [REDACTED] for officer safety. R/Os asked [REDACTED] if the vehicle was his and he related that it was a rental that his cousin rented. [REDACTED] went on to say that his cousin rents different cars every week from a guy that operates some type of rental service. R/Os again asked [REDACTED] where exactly he lived in the area at which time he became evasive in his answers stating, "All right man, I don't live here I was just trying to visit someone." At this time Detective Amato walked down the alley in an attempt to see if there were any neighbors around who knew [REDACTED]. During this time P.O. Rivera continued speaking with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] related that he had some crack and heroin on in his person inside his shorts. P.O. Rivera asked [REDACTED] what exactly he was doing in the area and [REDACTED] stated "All right man your partner is gonna find out anyway, I do have an apartment over here and I got some more drugs and a couple of guns." [REDACTED] then stated "I'm not big time, I just hustle a little bit, I'll work with you if you let me go." At this time P.O. Rivera contacted Det. Amato who returned to the vehicle and P.O. Rivera related [REDACTED] statements. R/Os contacted Sgt. Lopez who arrived on scene with P.O. Mariano and P.O. Hardy. At this time [REDACTED] was asked to retrieve the narcotics he stated he had in his pants and [REDACTED] reached into his waistband area and handed R/Os a clear plastic bag which contained suspect crack cocaine and heroin. SGT. Lopez presented [REDACTED] with a CPD consent to search form and advised [REDACTED] of his Miranda Rights at 0232 hrs. [REDACTED] read the consent form and signed same. [REDACTED] directed R/Os to [REDACTED] and provided R/Os with the keys to the front door. R/Os then entered the apartment and immediately observed a folding table in the living room area with numerous open pieces of tin foil each containing suspect heroin on top of the table. R/Os also observed a clear plastic sandwich bag containing suspect heroin on top of same table. [REDACTED] related that the guns were under his bed and R/Os recovered (2) semi-automatic handguns and two loaded magazine clips under the bed. [REDACTED] related that he had some crack cocaine in the kitchen cabinet which R/Os recovered. R/Os also recovered a scale and narcotics paraphernalia inside the apartment. R/Os concluded their search and transported [REDACTED] and all recovered evidence into the 008th district for processing. In the 008th district R/Os notified the K-9 unit and P.O. J. Swain #5043 arrived on scene. P.O. Swain performed a "money sniff" with her K-9 "Bent" who indicated a positive alert for the odor of narcotics on the USC. The two firearms recovered are clear, not registered per the Gun Desk. A name check of [REDACTED] revealed he is a Convicted Felon under 05CR2490701. [REDACTED] has an Investigative Alert with no probable cause to arrest. Felony Charges approved by ASA O'Callaghan at 0715 hrs.
